

House Resolution No. 2498

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Webb R. Gilmore, who has distinguished himself as an inaugural recipient of the 2005 Barons of the Boardroom; and

Whereas, Webb Gilmore currently serves as Chairman of the law firm of Gilmore & Bell, P.C., one of the leading public finance law firms in the nation; and

Whereas, Webb Gilmore received his Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics from the United States Naval Academy in 1966, and his J.D. from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1973, where he was Note and Comment Editor of the Missouri Law Review; and

Whereas, Webb Gilmore has practiced law as a municipal bond attorney since entering the law profession in 1973, since which time he has specialized in the area of tax-exempt bond financing for state and local governments, hospitals, universities, and other public and private institutions, and has served as bond counsel and underwriter's counsel on a wide variety of tax-exempt financings; and

Whereas, Webb Gilmore is exceedingly proud of his affiliation with such important organizations as the University of Missouri Board of Curators, the Missouri Lottery Commission, the Academy of Missouri Squires, the Missouri Humanities Council, the Gillis Center for Children and Families, the Kansas City Life Insurance Company, the Missouri Bar Association, the National Association of Bond Lawyers, the Missouri Municipal League, the Kansas City Missouri Bar Association, and the Missouri Municipal Attorneys Association:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Webb Gilmore at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Webb R. Gilmore.
